THEATRE BOX PRESENT THE WORLD PREMIERE OF THE SPARKLING COMEDY 'DIAMOND GIRL'

FLORAL PARK, N.Y.—Diamonds are a girl's best friend, but not necessarily an ex-husband's after his wife's ashes are turned into one of those gems in the original comedy "Diamond Girl," written by Floral Park playwright Claudia Wilson. This witty romp is making its bow for six performances between Friday, Nov. 10 and Sunday, Nov. 19 at United Methodist Church, 35 Verbena Ave.

When a free-spirited, adventurous woman dies, her conservative husband honors her last request that her ashes be made into a diamond. What he doesn't bargain for is that the diamond will be made into an engagement ring for his new girlfriend. When his fiancée begins to take on the traits of his late wife, he fears the ring may be possessed. And of course, the situations get even more hilarious.

Show times are 8 p.m. on Fridays, Nov. 10 and 17 and Saturdays, Nov. 11 and 18, and 2 p.m. Sundays, Nov. 12 and 19. Tickets are $17 for adults, $12 for ages 65 and older and $7 for ages 18 and younger. For reservations and additional information, call 516-900-2031 or email theatreboxtix@gmail.com.
