THEATRE BOX'S PRODUCTION OF 'DAMN YANKEES' HAS GOT HEART

FLORAL PARK, N.Y.—With the New York Mets making their way into the World Series, what could be a more appropriate show to score a home run with audiences this fall than “Damn Yankees”? Theatre Box of Floral Park is proud to present this award-winning musical featuring baseball, romance and all sorts of devil-may-care comedy as its fall production for six performances between Friday, Nov. 13 and Sunday, Nov. 22 at United Methodist Church, 35 Verbena Ave.

With a clever book by George Abbott and Douglas Wallop, “Damn Yankees” is the tale of Joe Hardy, a diehard baseball fan who makes a deal with devilish Mr. Applegate and tries to resist the temptation of Applegate’s vixenish assistant Lola all for the sake of his favorite team winning the playoffs. Adding to the fun are the fabulous songs of Richard Adler and Jerry Ross, including “(You Gotta Have) Heart,” “Whatever Lola Wants” and “A Little Brains, a Little Talent.”

Show times are Friday Nov. 13, Saturday Nov. 14, Friday Nov. 20, and Saturday Nov. 21 at 8 p.m. and Sundays, Nov. 15 and 22 at 2 p.m. Tickets are $15 for adults, $10 for seniors and $5 for students. For reservations and additional information, call 516-900-2031 or go to theatrebox.org.
