THEATRE BOX PRESENTS ARTHUR MILLER'S AMERICAN CLASSIC
'DEATH OF A SALESMAN'

FLORAL PARK, N.Y.—Arthur Miller's "Death of a Salesman" is often cited as the greatest play in the history of the American theater. Theatre Box is proud to present Miller's masterpiece for six performances between Friday, April 27 and Sunday, May 6 at United Methodist Church, 35 Verbena Ave.

The center of the play is Willy Loman, an aging salesman who's been fired from his job. Through flashbacks, we discover how Willy is unsatisfied with his life, which includes a less than perfect marriage to his wife, Linda, the inability of his sons Biff and Happy to carve successful careers for themselves, and his own inability to achieve the kind of success he had dreamed of. The struggles and tensions between Willy and his family as well as those who come into his life make for riveting and unforgettable drama.

Show times are 8 p.m. on Fridays, April 27 and May 4 and Saturdays, April 28 and May 5 and 2 p.m. Sundays, April 29 and May 6. Tickets are $17 for adults, $12 for ages 65 and older and $7 for ages 18 and younger. For reservations and additional information, call 516-900-2031 or email theatreboxtix@gmail.com.
