THEATRE BOX PRESENTS EDWARD ALBEE'S AWARD-WINNING DRAMA 'A DELICATE BALANCE'

FLORAL PARK, N.Y.—Few playwrights have explored family relationships and middle-class angst as deeply as Edward Albee in his masterpiece “A Delicately Balanced.” Theatre Box is proud to present this rarely performed drama for six performances between Friday, July 27 and Sunday, Aug. 5 in air-conditioned comfort at United Methodist Church, 35 Verbena Ave.

The play centers on Agnes and Tobias, whose marriage is unraveling. The situation has not been helped by Agnes’ alcoholic sister, who moved in and seems unanxious to leave, and the arrival of their lifelong family friends Harry and Edna, who have left their home to escape an unnamed terror. Further disrupting their lives is the return of their daughter Julia following the collapse of her fourth marriage. As the situation intensifies, emotions are laid raw in this riveting and drama that justifiably won the Pulitzer Prize for drama in 1967 and a Tony nomination for best play.

Show times are 8 p.m. on Fridays, July 27 and Aug. 4 and Saturdays, July 28 and Aug. 4 and 2 p.m. Sundays, July 29 and Aug. 5. Tickets are $17 for adults, $12 for ages 65 and older and $7 for ages 18 and younger.
