COME ON DOWN! AND SEE THEATRE BOX'S PRODUCTION OF 'GAME SHOW'

FLORAL PARK, N.Y.—The answer: The best show you're likely to see on Long Island this spring. The correct response: "What is 'Game Show' by Lew Riley? And you have six chances to catch this hilarious sendup of television game shows which will be presented by Theatre Box from Friday, April 22 to Sunday, May 1 at United Methodist Church, 35 Verbena Ave.

The action takes place behind the scenes and in front of the camera at the studio of a television game show where five colorful contestants – a fidgety Vietnam War veteran, a senator's assistant, a smug filmmaker, a ditzy housewife and an effervescent senior citizen – are all vying for the top prize on quiz show "King of the Mountain." Throw in a backstage romance, and you have a winning farce. For vaccinated audience members, masks are optional; for those who are not vaccinated, masks are recommended.

Show times are 8 p.m. on Fridays, April 22 and 29 and Saturdays, April 23 and 30, and 2 p.m. Sundays, April 24 and May 1. And the price is right: Tickets are $17 for adults, $12 for ages 65 and older and $7 for ages 18 and younger. For reservations and additional information, call 516-900-2031 (3-8 p.m. Monday-Friday or 10 a.m.-5 p.m. Saturday-Sunday) or email info@theatrebox.org.
